Index to Volume 27

No. 1	Summer 2001
No. 2	Autumn 2001
No. 3	Winter 2001
No. 4	Spring 2002

AUTHORS

Burns, James A., Jr. The Top Ten Ways To Guarantee Employee Lawsuits, No. 3, 83-102

Connell, Dana S., RIF à la Carte: Using Reported Cases To Develop Effective Reduction-in-Force Criteria, No. 3, 7-47

Ditelberg, Joshua L., and Piskorski, Thomas J., NLRB Breathes New Life into Employee Participation Committees, No. 3, 127-137

Grossman, Neil M., and Simon, Tamara M., Coverage of Prescription Contraceptives in Group Health Plans: Weighing the Options for Employers, No. 3, 103-112

Jenero, Kenneth A., and Ketay, Staci L., The Evolving FMLA: Guidance from Some Recent Court Decisions, No. 4, 51-67

Jenero, Kenneth A., and Schreiber, Phillip M., The Supreme Court's Latest Word on Retaliation, No. 2, 111-124

Jenero, Kenneth A., and Tassone, Caterina P.. Staying Competitive in the Twenty-First Century: Visa Alternatives for Global Employers, No. 1, 105-118

Kandel, William L., Truthfulness and Judgment in Resolving Employment Disputes, Part I, No. 3, 49-68

Kandel, William L., Truthfulness and Judgment in Resolving Employment Disputes, Part II, No. 4, 27-50

Kandel, William L., Preparation for Settlement of Workplace Disputes, No. 1, 65-84

Ketay, Staci L., and Jenero, Kenneth A., The Evolving FMLA: Guidance from Some Recent Court Decisions, No. 4, 51-67

Ketay, Staci L., and Spognardi, Mark A., Perspective—Bad Law and Bad Politics: OSHA's Ill-Fated Ergonomics Standard, No. 1, 85-90

Kilberg, William J., The Americans with Disabilities Act: Who Is Covered?, No. 4, 1-5

Kilberg, William J., EEOC v. Waffle House: Government Overreaching, No. 3, 1-5

© 2002 Aspen Law & Business

Kilberg, William J., Not Making a Federal Case Out of Employment Disputes, No. 2, 1-3
Kilberg, William J., New Beginnings, No. 1, 1-4
Kohen, Stefanie W., A Tangled Web—Unraveling Employer Obligations Under the New Medical Privacy Regulations, No. 2, 69-82
Kolomietz, Galina V., Moran, Anne E., and Terrill, Shaun L., Protections for Employees Called into Military Service, No. 4, 125-139
Lalli, Paul V., Rice, Charles M., and Wertz, Tamisa N., Reevaluating ADEA Waivers In Wake of New EEOC Final Regulation, No. 1, 43-64
McDonald, James J., Jr., My Disability Made Me Do It!, No. 2, 83-97
McDonald, James J., Jr., Posttraumatic Latefiling Syndrome, No. 3, 113-125
McDonald, James J., Jr. Sticks and Stones, No. 4, 101-112
McDonald, James J., Jr., An Epidemic of Feeling Poorly, No. 1, 91-104
McDougall, Heather L., Fair Credit Reporting Act: Unintended Employment Consequences of a Consumer Protection Law, No. 3, 69-81
McCullough, Monica R., Sudbury, Deborah A., and Towns, Douglas M., Section 216(b) Collective Actions: A Vehicle for Group-Initiated Claims, No. 2, 45-68
Marshall, Alison B., Electronic Discovery: Who Bears the Burden?, No. 2, 99-110
Marshall, Alison B., Robinson v. Metro-North: Renewed Life for Employment Discrimination Class Actions?, No. 4, 113-124
Mook, Jonathan R., Emerging Issues under the ADA: No Endgame in Sight, No. 1, 5-41
Moran, Anne E., On Second Thought—Modifying Retiree Health Plans, No. 2, 125-134
Moran, Anne E., Terrill, Shaun L., and Kolomietz, Galina V., Protections for Employees Called into Military Service, No. 4, 125-139
Moran, Anne E., The Challenge of Providing Health Benefits for Domestic Partners, No. 1, 119-130
Piskorski, Thomas J., and Ditelberg, Joshua L., NLRB Breathes New Life into Employee Participation Committees, No. 3, 127-137
Piskorski, Thomas J., and Stamatakos, Theodore C., Levitz Furniture: NLRB Rewrites the Book on Employer Efforts To Oust Incumbent Unions, No. 2, 31-44
Polson, John M., The PEO Phenomenon: Co-Employment At Work, No. 4, 7-25
Rice, Charles M., Wertz, Tamisa N., and Lalli, Paul V., Reevaluating ADEA Waivers In Wake of New EEOC Final Regulation, No. 1, 43-64

Schreiber, Phillip M., and Jenero, Kenneth A., The Supreme Court's Latest Word on Retaliation, No. 2, 111-124
Schwartz, Kenneth D., After Circuit City, Are There Any Limits on Enforcing Arbitration Agreements?, No. 2, 5-29
Simon, Tamara M., and Grossman, Neil M., Coverage of Prescription Contraceptives in Group Health Plans: Weighing the Options for Employers, No. 3, 103-112
Spognardi, Mark A., and Ketay, Staci L., Perspective—Bad Law and Bad Politics: OSHA's Ill-Fated Ergonomics Standard, No. 1, 85-90
Stamatakos, Theodore C., and Piskorski, Thomas J., Levitz Furniture: NLRB Rewrites the Book on Employer Efforts To Oust Incumbent Unions, No. 2, 31-44
Starkman, Paul E., Open Issues After Circuit City: Still No Easy Answers on Mandatory Arbitration, No. 4, 69-99
Sudbury, Deborah A., Towns, Douglas M., and McCullough, Monica R., Section 216(b) Collective Actions: A Vehicle for Group-Initiated Claims, No. 2, 45-68
Tassone, Caterina P., and Jenero, Kenneth A., Staying Competitive in the Twenty-First Century: Visa Alternatives for Global Employers, No. 1, 105-118
Terrill, Shaun L., Proceed with Caution—The New DOL Claims Procedures Regulations, No. 3, 139-151
Terrill, Shaun L., Kolomietz, Galina V., and Moran, Anne E., Protections for Employees Called into Military Service, No. 4, 125-139
Towns, Douglas M., McCullough, Monica R., and Sudbury, Deborah A., Section 216(b) Collective Actions: A Vehicle for Group-Initiated Claims, No. 2, 45-68
Wertz, Tamisa N., Lalli, Paul V., and Rice, Charles M., Reevaluating ADEA Waivers In Wake of New EEOC Final Regulation, No. 1, 43-64

ADEA WAIVERS

Reevaluating ADEA Waivers In Wake of New EEOC Final Regulation, Paul V. Lalli, Charles M. Rice, and Tamisa N. Wertz, No. 1, 43-64

AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT

Emerging Issues under the ADA: No Endgame in Sight, Jonathan R. Mook, No. 1, 5-41

ARBITRATION

After Circuit City, Are There Any Limits on Enforcing Arbitration Agreements?, Kenneth D. Schwartz, No. 2, 5-29

Open Issues After Circuit City: Still No Easy Answers on Mandatory Arbitration, Paul E. Starkman, No. 4, 69-99

CO-EMPLOYMENT

The PEO Phenomenon: Co-Employment At Work, John M. Polson, No. 4, 7-25

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Truthfulness and Judgment in Resolving Employment Disputes, Part I, William L. Kandel, No. 3, 49-68

Truthfulness and Judgment in Resolving Employment Disputes, Part II, William L. Kandel, No. 4, 27-50

EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

The Challenge of Providing Health Benefits for Domestic Partners, Anne E. Moran, No. 1, 119-130

On Second Thought—Modifying Retiree Health Plans, Anne E. Moran, No. 2, 125-134

Proceed with Caution—The New DOL Claims Procedures Regulations, Shaun L. Terrill, No. 3, 139-151

Protections for Employees Called into Military Service, Anne E. Moran, Shaun L. Terrill, and Galina V. Kolomietz, No. 4, 125-139

EMPLOYMENT LITIGATION

Electronic Discovery: Who Bears the Burden?, Alison B. Marshall, No. 2, 99-110

Robinson v. Metro-North: Renewed Life for Employment Discrimination Class Actions?, Alison B. Marshall, No. 4, 113-124

ERGONOMICS

Perspective—Bad Law and Bad Politics: OSHA's Ill-Fated Ergonomics Standard, Mark A. Spognardi and Staci L. Ketay, No. 1, 85-90

FAIR CREDIT REPORTING ACT

Fair Credit Reporting Act: Unintended Employment Consequences of a Consumer Protection Law, Heather L. McDougall, No. 3, 69-81

FMLA

The Evolving FMLA: Guidance from Some Recent Court Decisions, Kenneth A. Jenero and Staci L. Ketay, No. 4, 51-67

FROM THE EDITOR

The Americans with Disabilities Act: Who Is Covered?, William J. Kilberg, No. 4, 1-5

EEOC v. Waffle House: Government Overreaching, William J. Kilberg, No. 3, 1-5

New Beginnings , William J. Kilberg , No. 1, 1-4

Not Making a Federal Case Out of Employment Disputes, William J. Kilberg, No. 2, 1-3

GROUP-INITIATED CLAIMS

Section 216(b) Collective Actions: A Vehicle for Group-Initiated Claims, Deborah A. Sudbury, Douglas M. Towns, and Monica R. McCullough, No. 2, 45-68

HEALTH INSURANCE

Coverage of Prescription Contraceptives in Group Health Plans: Weighing the Options for Employers, Tamara M. Simon and Neil M. Grossman, No. 3, 103-112

LABOR AND EMPLOYEE RELATIONS

The Supreme Court's Latest Word on Retaliation, Kenneth A. Jenero and Phillip M. Schreiber, No. 2, 111-124

NLRB Breathes New Life into Employee Participation Committees, Joshua L. Ditelberg and Thomas J. Piskorski, No. 3, 127-137

Staying Competitive in the Twenty-First Century: Visa Alternatives for Global Employers, Kenneth A. Jenero and Caterina P. Tassone, No. 1, 105-118

LEX MENTIS

An Epidemic of Feeling Poorly, James J. McDonald, Jr., No. 1, 91-104

My Disability Made Me Do It!, James J. McDonald, Jr., No. 2, 83-97

Posttraumatic Latefiling Syndrome, James J. McDonald, Jr., No. 3, 113-125

Sticks and Stones, James J. McDonald, Jr., No. 4, 101-112

LITIGATION

The Top Ten Ways To Guarantee Employee Lawsuits, James A. Burns, Jr., No. 3, 83-102

MEDICAL PRIVACY REGULATIONS

A Tangled Web—Unraveling Employer Obligations Under the New Medical Privacy Regulations, Stefanie W. Kohen, No. 2, 69-82

OSHA

Perspective—Bad Law and Bad Politics: OSHA's Ill-Fated Ergonomics Standard, Mark A. Spognardi and Staci L. Ketay, No. 1, 85-90

REDUCTION-IN-FORCE

RIF à la Carte: Using Reported Cases To Develop Effective Reduction-in-Force Criteria, Dana S. Connell, No. 3, 7-47

SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

Preparation for Settlement of Workplace Disputes, William L. Kandel, No. 1, 65-84

UNIONS

Levitz Furniture: NLRB Rewrites the Book on Employer Efforts To Oust Incumbent Unions, Theodore C. Stamatakos and Thomas J. Piskorski, No. 2, 31-44

WORKPLACE DISPUTES

Preparation for Settlement of Workplace Disputes, William L. Kandel, No. 1, 65-84